The Kamara Bridge (Albanian: Ura e Kamares) is an Ottoman stone arch bridge over the Shkumbin river in Mirakë, part of the Librazhd municipality in Elbasan County, Albania. Mesi Bridge As one of the longest and best-preserved Ottoman bridges in the region, its unique, asymmetrical stone arches are a f. Built in the early 18th century during the Ottoman era, the bridge connects the village of Mes, where it gets its name, with the historic city of. The reintegration project "URA Albania", financed by the state and the federal states, supports returnees immediately after their arrival in Albania and offers personal and trustworthy support and a wide range of consulting and non-cash benefits in the often challenging initial phase. Nestled in the rolling hills above the stone city, this ancient structure stands as a silent witness to Albania's rich past—an engineering marvel that once.
