

Canadian Power Plant Cable Tray Manufacturer

Article Overview

Top Canadian manufacturers for power plant cable trays include Unitray, Superior Tray, T&B Cable Tray (ABB), and Abnex, offering CSA-certified, durable, and customizable solutions.

Leading Manufacturers

Unitray is a prominent Canadian manufacturer specializing in aluminum cable trays, offering CSA-approved Class C, D, and E trays in standard and custom lengths. Their products include ladder, perforated, and solid bottom trays, designed for high durability and easy installation in industrial and energy projects. Unitray also supplies the FASTRAY® system, which reduces field labor and increases load capacity, making it suitable for large-scale power plant installations (Unitray) . Superior Tray provides a wide range of cable management solutions, including steel and aluminum trays, ladder trays, solid bottom trays, and perforated trays. They cater to industrial, construction, and energy sectors, offering custom designs and CSA/UL certifications to ensure safety and performance in demanding environments (Superior Tray) . T&B Cable Tray (ABB) manufactures aluminum and steel ladder trays, one-piece trays, and ExpressTray® wire basket trays at facilities in Saint-Jean-sur-Richelieu, Quebec, and Edmonton, Alberta. Their plants support custom orders, including non-standard lengths, special colors, and pre-drilled grounding holes. T&B Cable Tray is recognized for quick turnaround times and high-quality standards, making it suitable for power plant projects across Canada (ABB) . Abnex is a joint venture between ABB and Niedax Group, providing advanced cable management solutions for industrial and e...
