Article Overview

White molded cable trays typically cost between $2 and $25 per meter, depending on material, type, size, and finish.

Price Range and Factors

- Material: Plastic or polymer trays are generally the most budget-friendly, while steel (galvanized or stainless) is more expensive due to durability and load capacity requirements .
- Type of Tray: Ladder trays, perforated trays, and solid-bottom trays differ in price. Ladder trays are more expensive because they support heavier cables, whereas perforated or molded trays are lighter and cheaper .
- Surface Finish: White powder-coated or molded finishes add to the cost compared to uncoated or pre-galvanized trays .
- Size and Dimensions: Wider or deeper trays require more material, increasing the price per meter .
- Order Quantity: Bulk orders can reduce the price by 20%–40%, while small orders may be at the higher end of the range .
- Additional Costs: Shipping, installation, and accessories like connectors, drop-outs, and hanging clips can add to the total cost .
