

Ranking of Taiwan Factory Electrical Distribution Box Manufacturers

Article Overview

Leading Taiwanese manufacturers of electrical distribution boxes include E-tan, Gainta Industries, NAN TAI, and Zei Fue, each offering specialized enclosures and switchgear solutions for industrial and commercial applications.

E-tan

E-tan is a well-established manufacturer with over 25 years of experience in industrial enclosures, electrical boxes, junction boxes, control boxes, and wall boxes . Their products are known for high ingress protection (IP68), making them suitable for harsh environments such as marine, renewable energy, and water treatment applications. E-tan also provides custom machining services and accessories, supporting diverse design requirements and AIoT smart aquaculture systems .

Gainta Industries

Gainta Industries is one of the largest enclosure manufacturers in Asia, specializing in thermoplastic and aluminum enclosures for protecting electrical and electronic components in hostile environments . With 30 years of experience, Gainta offers OEM mold manufacturing and a wide range of enclosures, including plastic and aluminum boxes, packaging housings, and electronic instrument cases. Their modern factories in Taiwan ensure high-quality production and reliability .
